short book but there is certainly nothing simple about it the fourth was especially bad rhodes does an excellent job of not only describing her characters but endearing them to hawsong also it s an April 22nd, 2020 - in my opinion hawksong is the most well written book that amelia atwater rhodes has published so far this is not to say that i did not enjoy her previous books in forests of the night demon in my view shattered mirror amp midnight predator but this is the first book where her plot did not involve a tough girl falling inexplicably in love with a vampire guy of sorts'

'customer reviews hawksong the kiesha ra book 1

November 17th, 2019 - this book starts the kiesha ra series and starts it well the avians and serpiente have been in war for hundreds of years so long in fact that neither side know s how and why the war got started with nothing more to go on than the revenge for their people s deaths the two new leaders of each side are tired of the endless bloodshed and seek help from a neutral land'
